

Memoria Foundation

Award Holders

*We are proud to present the Memoria Foundation's award holders.
When they received their awards, these young women were all engineering students or graduates of the École polytechnique de Montréal.*

Note: We do not have photos of all the award holders

1990-1991

Heidi Rathjen, civil engineering graduate (1990). After the events at the École polytechnique, she co-founded and directed the Coalition for Gun Control, which led to the adoption of Bill C-68 in 1995. She received the Prix de la justice du Québec in 1996 and, the same year, an honorary doctorate from Université Laval.

Heidi
Rathjen

Nathalie Provost, mechanical engineering graduate (1990). She was doing her master's in industrial engineering when she received the scholarship. Wounded during the massacre at the Polytechnique, she tried to reason with the killer. You can view her account (in French) in the NFB documentary, Au-delà du 6 décembre, directed by Catherine Fol.

Nathalie
Provost

1991-1992

Sophie Harvey, civil engineering graduate (1991). She later obtained her master's degree in hydraulic engineering (1994).

Sophie
Harvey

1992-1993

Michèle Laframboise, civil engineering graduate. Today, she has a successful career writing science fiction and comic books.

Michèle
Laframboise

1993-1994

Lynda Audette, civil engineering graduate (1995).

Lynda
Audette

1994-1995

Émilie Bédard, chemical engineering graduate, majoring in the environment.

Émilie
Bédard

1995-1996

Julie Portelance, mechanical engineering graduate. She was doing her master's in engineering management when she received the award.

Julie Portelance

1996-1997

Nathalie Fortin, industrial engineering graduate (2000). In 1993, she received a Governor General's Academic Medal for outstanding scholastic performance.

Nathalie Fortin

1997-1998

Natasha Bergeron, mechanical engineering student, majoring in aeronautics.

Mélanie Charest, industrial engineering graduate.

Natasha Bergeron

1998-1999

Laurence Mercier, computer engineering student.

Mélanie Charest

2001-2002

Geneviève Bussièrès*, chemical engineering student.

Marie-Christine Pagé*, civil engineering student.

Laurence Mercier

2002-2003

Geneviève Trahan-Petit*, mechanical engineering student.

Géraldine-Edmée Bernard, physical engineering student.

Géraldine-Edmée Bernard

2003-2004

Thanh-Thuy Vo Thang, electrical engineering student.

*Thanh-Thuy
Vo Thang*

* We do not have the photo of this award holder.

2004-2005

Khadija Dhouib, electrical engineering graduate, majoring in energy. She later obtained her master's degree in applied mathematics.

Kim Sergerie*, engineering student.

Khadija Dhouib

2005-2006

Julie Guicheteau, physical engineering student.

Lucie Ait El Hadj-Bélisle, mechanical engineering student, majoring in aeronautics.

Julie Guicheteau

2007-2008

Laura-Jeanne Taschereau, chemical engineering student, majoring in the environment.

*Lucie Ait
El Hadj-Bélisle*

Laura-Jeanne Taschereau

* We do not have the photo of this award holder.